

manual skylight operator

// product features

- Manual operator for roof window applications
- Designed for aluminum, wood, or vinyl framed skylights
- Stainless steel cable with reinforced polymer chain for strength, durability and quiet operation
- Recessed to accept a fly screen, which can be fitted between operator and skylight
- Detachable sash bracket for ease of installation and fire safety
- Sophisticated, compact appearance
- Simple to install
- High performance for large size operating units

